

College Curriculum

What Will Your Next Financial Move Be?

This accredited, web-based course teaches college students God's perspective on managing money and possessions. It can be taught in a variety of settings, can be a 1-3 credit course and is designed for flexibility to meet the unique needs of each college or university.

Instructors eWorkbook

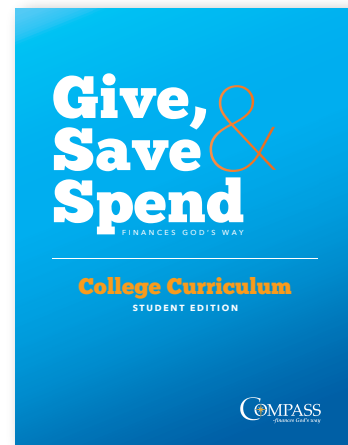

- ◆ Instructor's Guide
- ◆ Instructor Class Overview Worksheet
- ◆ Sample Final Exam
- ◆ Sample Syllabus
- ◆ Contrast Society & Scripture Worksheet
- ◆ Additional Financial Scripture References

14 In-Class PowerPoint Presentations

- ◆ Weekly Ice Breaker/ Discussion Questions
- ◆ Can be co-branded by the college or university
- ◆ Includes 13 linked Video Testimonies:
 - 65 Embedded or linked Animations
 - Weekly Links to Current Financial Events & News
 - Weekly Review of Memory Verses
 - Weekly discussion of Small Group Homework
 - Weekly Contrast of Society & Scripture
 - Description of upcoming Small Group Homework Assignment
 - Weekly class prayer

Student eWorkbook

- ◆ 12 Small Group Homework Assignments (can be conducted in Small Group Setting or Individually)
 - All assignments are in the Give, Save & Spend Student eWorkbook
 - Embedded verses
 - Embedded animations
 - Embedded videos relevant to weeks content (from YouTube)
 - Weekly Practical Application (writing a resume, the deed, etc)
- ◆ Notes from the book Your Money Counts
- ◆ Weekly Financial Practical Applications
- ◆ Prayer Journals
- ◆ 12 Scripture Memory Verses
- ◆ Can be conducted in classroom setting or online
- ◆ Can be taught as a credited course (1-3 credit hours) or as a pass/ fail. The course is designed for flexibility.
 - Can be used with computers, tablets and smartphones (both Apple and Android products)

Student eWorkbook: $39
Instructor eWorkbook: $59

available for purchase at www.compassbooks.org